RADEMACHER, Franz

3. If interrogation thorough, Syrians may be able to roll up RADEMACHER and MIDANI thereby tieing COHEN accomplice to us and West Germany without bringing in ZAYN. However bringing in ZAYN would give added fillip.....[redacted] 8119 - IN 24699 - [redacted] 17 March 1965

Beirut Press, including quotes from West German Embassy Dama, leaves no room for doubt that RADEMACHER arrested by Govt of Syria. 18 March Daily Star article "Syria to Try German Spies" quotes announcement by Salah BULLI that "SPRINGER" and "ROZALIO" were agents of an unnamed power and would be involved in a new spy trial. Article continues with mention that West German Embassy Dama idntified "ROZALIO" as in fact RADEMACHER who wanted by West German courts as war criminal. Article identifies SPRINGER as having departed Syria eight months before, but while in Syria lived with ex-German Major REMER who was one of key figures in anti-Nazi roundup after abortive effort assassinate Hitler July 1944.
